Mr. Hardy, .

I took my time on this one, but I think everything is ok. Both Nasr and Van Appen are dead. The author does a very good job of backing everything up with footnotes.

-As for the CIA info, almost everything dealing with the CIA has a corresponding footnote. There are a few statements that do not have these, but I researched and found this information online. I've highlighted the examples.

Everything should be ok.

Thanks

Re: "Pistols To Press"

Dear Mr. Lanza:

This letter is in response to your request of February 14, 2011, for review of the above referenced book for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

This book was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following listed matter which requires amendment/correction. You are advised that you are not authorized to use the FBI seal or Special Agent badge, or any colorable imitations thereof, in connection with your publication, including on its cover. You are further advised that you are not authorized to use the initials "F.B.I." or the words, "Federal Bureau of Investigation" or any colorable imitations thereof, in any manner reasonably calculated to convey the impression that the FBI endorses, approves, or authorizes your publication. Notwithstanding these prohibitions, the FBI does not object to the photo of the Special Agent badge with caption as included on page 34 of your submission for prepublication review.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the chapters are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Hi Deborah,

Your article, "Reinventing the G-Man: Bringing Change to FBI Procurement," is fantastic, and I've slated it for the June issue of Contract Management magazine. You can expect to receive the copyedited version for your review in mid- to late April.

I've attached a publication copyright agreement for you. When you have a moment, please complete, sign, and return it to me either by e-mail or fax (703-448-0939).

Thank you again for the article submission. Feel free to contact me with any questions.

Best regards,

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Here is the final manuscript and in final form. The publisher wanted you to see it for one last time - if you don't mind. It is essentially the same. I did add one more case example [REDACTED]

b6 -1

[REDACTED] I can change that if you need me too. I have been in contact with [REDACTED] and asked permission if I could mention his case in my book and he said yes. I can forward that email to you - if you like.

I also have included the Acknowledgement section in which I name current FBI Agents and members of the BAU. I thought you would want to see that too.

Is it possible to get another letter from your Unit Chief approving the whole and final manuscript - if that is not too much trouble.

Again, thank you very much for all of your help.

Re: "Detection of Patched Bullet Holes in Painted Drywall"

Dear Mr. DeFrance,

This letter is in response to your request of March 3, 2011, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your article, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the article are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.
